Inclusion Team and Community Update

James Creek is our Social Inclusion Officer who works as part of the Central Team – he works across the Torridge Cluster of Schools and will be onsite at St Helen's Primary School every Wednesday and Friday's.

This year he would like to focus on continuing to develop relationships with the school's children and families and build stronger connections within the community and local services that can benefit our school community.

James Creek, our dedicated Inclusion Officer, is committed to helping children attend school full-time by supporting both pupils and parents in resolving any issues which could impact our young people attending school. His mission is to create an inclusive and welcoming educational environment, ensuring every student has the opportunity to thrive. James works closely with students and parents to overcome barriers relating to school attendance, providing valuable assistance through parenting courses and facilitating support from the local authority. His efforts make a significant impact on our students holistic development.
